

About the Award

This award, overseen by the AACTE Committee on Research and Dissemination, recognizes as exemplary books that make a significant contribution to the knowledge base of educator preparation or of teaching and learning with implications for educator preparation. The award-winning book and its author/editor(s) will receive special recognition at AACTE's 72nd Annual Meeting in Atlanta, Georgia, February 28 – March 1, 2020.

Eligibility and Selection Criteria

Only books with a publication date since July 2017 will be considered. Additionally, the award-winning work must

- Directly address educator preparation or teaching and learning with implications for educator preparation
- Contain originality of thought in critical analyses of particular assumptions or practices, or outline proposals that reorient thinking in educator preparation
- Demonstrate high-quality scholarship in an area relevant to educator preparation
- Show potential for significant impact on policy or practice in educator preparation
- Demonstrate clear and effective writing

Submission Requirements

Authors may not nominate their own work. Publishers may submit no more than two titles per imprint. Nominations from publishers must be accompanied by a letter of recommendation from an AACTE-member academician. All entries must be made through AACTE's online submissions site, and printed copies of the book should be delivered to the AACTE office (see below). Digital attachments for this entry must include

- A letter of recommendation addressing the selection criteria listed above
- A brief professional biography of the author(s) (150 words per author)
- Contact information for the author(s) or the publisher's representative(s)

Sending Review Copies

Please contact the publisher to request review copies for the AACTE committee. If available, the committee prefers to receive both a hard copy and an e-book to review.

- Send eight hard copies of each book to AACTE Awards, 1307 New York Ave. NW, Suite 300, Washington, DC 20005.
- If available, send the link to download the e-book (along with any access code or special instructions) to AACTE at bfrost@acte.org.

Note: If AACTE does not receive any book award nominations through the submission process described above, the Committee on Research and Dissemination may nominate books for consideration.
